□ ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Ito Peng is the Professor of Sociology and Public Policy at the Department of Sociology and the School of Public Policy and Governance, and the Director of the Centre for Global Social Policy. She teaches political sociology and comparative public policy, specializing in family and gender policies and comparative welfare states. She has written extensively on gender, labour market, and political economy of social policy reforms in East Asia.

Professor Peng is currently the Principal Investigator of the SSHRC funded international Partnership Research project called Gender, Migration and the Work of Care, that examines how reorganization of care influences government policies and global migration of care workers, and how migration in turn shapes on social policies and care.
